

Overview

Macomb & McDonough County is home to a four year university, a community college and regionally convenient to four other college and universities. The wealth of educational programs results in a well educated, well trained workforce quipped to deal with marketplaces that are quickly changing.

Western Illinois University

WIU is committed to academic excellence.

There are eight programs regionally and/or nationally distinctive to WIU: Broadcasting, Construction, Management, Emergency Management, Forensic Chemistry, Law Enforcement and Justice Administration, Meteorology, Supply Chain Management, and Musical Theater. The University's four colleges, 41 academic departments and 750 faculty members prepare students and graduates to lead in the global economy.

Western Illinois School of Nursing

The Commission on Collegiate Nursing education recently awarded the WIU School of nursing a five year accreditation, the longest possible. The exhaustive review process met the highest standards for nursing education to ensure that students receive an outstanding education to become excellent nurses.

Western Illinois School of Engineering

The Bachelor of Science in Engineering degree program can be completed in four years. This multi-disciplinary Engineering degree prepares graduates for technology leadership in the 21st century. The program provides the intellectual foundation for lifelong learning and successful careers.

Spoon River College

Spoon River College is a friendly and safe campus with a superior faculty featuring locations in Macomb, Canton, Havana, and Rushville. SRC offers an affordable college education where earned credits will readily transfer to four-year universities. SRC also offers vocational and technical education. SRC maintains two Community Outreach Centers to increase accessibility to technology and provide training viewed as critical to success.

SRC—Nursing & Allied Health

The Nursing and allied Health program offers many opportunities for individuals to have a rewarding career in the nursing field. The high demand for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and certified nursing assistants, makes SRC a great place to start your journey to a worthwhile career.
